

MR., MRS. EDWARD MORRIS PIPED FROM CHURCH DOOR

Two pipers of the 46th Highlanders piped Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robert Morris from Earls court United church following their recent wedding. The bride was the former Joan Eida Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Gardner, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morris. Rev. Carman Hie officiated. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of off-white satin, fashioned with a lace yoke, long sleeves and pointed peplum. The full skirt was caught to a slight bustle at the back. A silk-embroidered headdress held her long veil of net and she carried white roses and gladioli. Mrs. Harold Heron, West Hill, wore light green satin and bridesmaids Mrs. Lockesley Job and Beverley Morton, Toronto, were in rose pink satin. They wore matching Dutch hats and carried pink gladioli petals. Mary Lou Biggs was flower girl in green satin. Groomsman was Gilbert Morris, Leamington, and ushers were Lockesley F. Job and Harold Heron, West Hill. The bride's mother received in pearl gray crepe with navy blue accessories and corsage of pink roses. The mother of the groom assisted in powder blue crepe with black accessories and red roses.

JOHN STONE MARRIES IN LA JUNTA, COL.

La Junta, Colorado, Aug. 23 — Rev. C. W. Halsey officiated at the marriage here in First Presbyterian church of Helen Dorothy Woodling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Woodling, to John Giles Stone, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Stone of Toronto. Baskets of white flowers were on the altar. Given away by her brother, Robert Woodling, the bride wore a white silk shantung afternoon dress with hat of the same material. She carried a white Bible and white orchid. Her only attendant was Mrs. Donald Sanford of Detroit, in a coral silk shantung afternoon dress with matching hat and a white bouquet. Donald Sanford was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. D. A. Norton. Best man was Court Stone and Arthur Stone ushered. The bride's mother received in navy figured crepe with a navy straw hat, assisted by the groom's mother wearing gray-blue crepe with lace bolero and a gray hat. The couple will reside in Windsor, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lindsay, Kingsbury Cres., formerly of Lindsay, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary today.