FORBES—GARDNER

A pretty wedding was solemnized at St. David's Presbyterian church, Harvie Ave., when Annie Craig, fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gardner, was united in marriage to Mr. George Forbes, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Forbes, Rosemount Place, Aberdeen, Scotland, Rev. N. L. Stevenson officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory silk lace with wreath and veil, and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Lillian Mary, sister of the bride, was a charming bridesmaid, attired in mauve taffeta and tulle with picture hat of mauve mohair and bouquet of talisman roses with streamers of wide gold ribbon and wore a gold and amethyst ring, the gift of the groom. The two small flower girls, Margaret Hillis and Margaret Campbell, nieces of the bride, were dressed in Nile green crepe de chine and carried baskets of pink sweet peas and rosebuds and wore gold signet rings, gifts of the groom. The duties of groomsman were ably carried out by Mr. W. E. Prentice of Belleville. Miss Ross supplied the wedding music and during the signing of the register Mr. J. Greiveson sang "My World." After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 237 Laughton Ave. Later in the evening the young couple left for Montreal and on their return will make their home at 133 Caledonia Rd.
