BATH SPORTSMAN

Death of Mr. Ernest Critchlow

Many old friends of his in Bath will regret to learn of the death of Mr. Ernest Critchlow, of 45, St. James's Parade, which occurred on Good Friday, after a very short illness.

He was a wheelwright by trade, but had been in business as a dealer in curios, for many years, at 31, St. James's Parade, having previously spent 20 years in London.

In local sporting circles he was very well-known, especially in by gone days for he was an enthusiastic follower of rugby football, and had won many prizes for running as a member of the old Widcombe Institute Harriers

It later years he devoted his leisure to billiards and played a good game of snooker

THE FUNERAL.

The funeral took place at St. Michael's Cemetery on Thursday, the service being taken by the Vicar of St. James's, the Rev. M. C. Colbourn.

A wheelwright by trade, Mr. Critchlow had a business as a curio dealer for many years at 31, St. James's Parade, and was also very well known in sporting circles.

The principal mourners were: Mr. T. P. Warner (father-in-law), Mr. Reginald Warner (brother-in-law), Mr. Jack Goldsworthy (cousin), and Messrs. G. I. Davis, Charles Harvey and F. E. Barnard (friends).

Mrs. Critchlow was unable to attend through illness.

Those also present included Mr. A. J. Easton, Mr. E. J. Slack, Miss B. Ford, Mr. E. Whiting, Mr C Harvey, Mr. T. Warner, Mr. S. Chard, Mrs. Bonnitt, Mrs. Say and Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins. Apologies were received from Mr A. Richardson and Mr. F. Grahams.

Floral tributes were received as follows:—To my beloved Husband, from his loving wife, Julie, a cross; wreaths from Mr. T. Warner, father-in-law; Reg and Norah; Pat, Chris and Richard (his little nephews); Fred, Ciss and Michael (Leytonstone); Cousin Lill, Flo and Tom (Walthamstow); Cousin Maud, Marjorie and Harold; Cousin Kate, Edith and Gladys; the Goldsworthy family; Joan Barbara and the boys; Len and Dossie; Miss Buck; from the committee and members of the Harington Club; Mr. Ike Davis; Mr. and Mrs. Clifton, Lill and Ted; Mr. and Mrs. Sid Smith; Mrs. F. L. Hughes; Mrs. Lansdell; Mr and Mrs. Barnard, Olive and Jack; Mr and Miss Pizzie; Mr. and Mrs. Hughes and family; the Misses James; Miss Bareham; Valerie Harrisson; Nellie Morrissey; Leslie and Ruby.

The funeral arrangements were undertaken by Messrs. Hanks and Whiting, Bathwick Street, Bath.

"BATH SPORTSMAN - Death of Mr. Ernest Critchlow," Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, 30 Mar 1940, p. 15, col. 4; digital images, British Library, British Newspapers 1800-1900 (http://newspapers.bl.uk : accessed 28 Nov 2022).