R. Crouch Purchases The White Lunch

Cyril McCaig, who has operated The White Lunch for the past year, has disposed of the business to Richard Crouch of Sarnia. Mr. Crouch has taken over and he and Mrs. Crouch and son, Jack, plan to move here when Mr. Crouch settles his affairs at Sarnia.

Mr. Crouch has had previous experience in serving the public having operated a large summer eating place in the Sarnia district.

He also is a graduate optometrist, operating in Sarnia. Mr. Crouch plans to bring his equipment here and continue in optometry part time.

"R. Crouch Purchases The White Lunch," The Dutton Advance, 07 Sep 1950, p. 1, col. 2.