Sarah Wills
Widow of a Boatman in the Coast Guard at Shanklin praying a Gratuity.

No. 920

May it please your Lordships

Our Lordships having referred to us the annexed application of Sarah Wills Widow of Lawrence Wills late a Boatman of the Coast Guard at Shanklin in the Port of Cowes praying to be allowed a Gratuity in consequence of the decease of her Husband having been occasioned by a Cold caught in the executing of his Duty:-

The report: That the Petitioner's Husband Lawrence Wills was a Commissioned Boatman of the Coast Guard at Shanklin in the Port of Cowes who died on the 1st ulto in consequence of a severe Cold attended with Rheumatism by which he

57

he had been rendered incapable of Duty from the 1 Febᵞ preceding:

That your Lordships were pleased by Mr. Stewart's Letter of the 30 March last to inform us that you had decided in future to grant Gratuities to the Widows of Persons employed in the Coast Guard only in those cases where the illness which might have occasioned the death of the Party could be traced to some direct cause such as hurt or accident in the actual discharge of Duty, and as the Death of the Petitioner's Husband is not attributable to any direct cause of this nature, We cannot recommend to your Lordships a compliance with the Prayer of the Petition.

20 July 1829

R. B. Dean H. Richmond
H. P. Roe S. G. Lushington

Have do We See any objection to the Articles being entered and Examined at the Port of Southampton, and transhipped from the Vessel which brings the Articles from Jersey to Southampton into the Vessel engaged to convey the Same to Portsmouth as requested by the Petitioner

2 July 1829

R. B. Dean. H. Richmond.
H. L. Roe. J. G. Lushington.

---

No 930.

May it please Your Lordships

Your Lordships having referred to us the annexed application of Sarah Wills Widow of Lawrence Wills late a Boatman of the Coast Guard at Shanklin in the Port of Cowes praying to be allowed a Gratuity in consequence of the decease of her Husband having been occasioned by a Cold caught in the execution of his Duty:-

Sarah Wills Widow of a Boatman in the Coast Guard at Shanklin praying a Gratuity.

We report

That the Petitioners Husband Lawrence Wills was a Commissioned Boatman of the Coast Guard at Shanklin in the Port of Cowes who died on the 1st Ultr in consequence of a severe Cold attended with Rheumatism by which he

Board of Customs: Board to Privy Council and Treasury, "Report Book [Vol. 76: 23 Jun 1829 - 26 Sep 1829]," CUST 30/101, pp. 56-57, "Sarah Wills, Widow of a Boatman in the Coast Guard at Shanklin praying a Gratuity," 20 Jul 1829; National Archives of the UK, Kew, England. Page 2 of 3.

he has been rendered incapable of Duty from the 1st Feby preceding:

That your Lordships were pleased by Mr. Stewart's Letter of the 3d March last to inform us that you had decided in future to grant Gratuities to the Widows of Persons employed in the Coast Guard only in those Cases where the illness which might have occasioned the death of the Party could be traced to some direct cause such as hurt or accident in the actual discharge of Duty, and as the Death of the Petitioner's Husband is not attributable to any direct cause of this nature, We cannot recommend to your Lordships a compliance with the Prayer of the Petition

20 July 1829.

Rt. Hon. Stanley Lord Goderich
1st Augt 1829

R. B. Dean. R. Richmond.
W. T. Poe. J. G. Teushington

No 935.

May it please Your Lordships

Your Lordships having referred to us Messrs Hullett &c the annexed Petition of Messrs Hullett Brothers &c praying for a return of Duty or return of the Duty paid by them on 24 Casks of Soap paid on some Casks of Soap shipped for shipped at this Port for Buenos Ayres.

Buenos Ayres.

We