Ryde District Relieving Officer

Mr Sims the Medical Officer of the Brading District complained of Mr Ellman for neglect of Duty - Stated

That Mr Ellman frequently gave scraps of Paper as orders which he (Mr Sims) never received, which causes a great deal of inconvenience to him (Mr S) and it was his wish to avoid it - The Relieving Officer did not call on John Taylor regularly, but sent his Money by others -

Resolved - That the Guardians are well satisfied with the conduct of Mr Ellman

Resolved - That the Weekly Committee be authorized to take measures for the emigration of Paupers to Australia and young Men to Canada making application for that kind of relief.

Adjourn to the 12th day of April next at the House of Industry at twelve o'clock at noon -
