Local and Otherwise.

St. Paul's church Tea Jan. 17.

No competitor can undersell Ellison & Co.

You ought to see Ellison & Co's Boys' Suits.

People wonder how Ellison & Co. can sell so cheap.

Baldwin Bee-hive fingering, at 9c a skein, Tod Bros.

The News says the sacred concert in the Queen-st church was a success.

The Tailoring Department is booming at Couch, Johnston & Cryderman's.

Mr. Wesley Johns, of Hampton, is learning carriage making at Morris'.

John R. Clarke, the orator, is to lecture here Dec. 14. Particulars later.

Don't subscribe for any newspapers or magazine till you see the STATESMAN rates.

They have received a new lot of mantle cloths at the West End House. Call and see them, they are beauties.

For the most elegant Dress Goods, the finest assortment and the best value, call at Couch, Johnsten & Cryderman's.

In nearly every instance when stray animals have been advertised in the STATESMAN this season they have been found or claimed.

Rev. E. Roberts preached a sermon on the life and death of the late Levi Morris in the Queen-st church on Sunday night to a large audience.

"Local and otherwise," The Canadian Statesman (Bowmanville), 03 Dec 1886, p. 5, col. 1.