

PUBLIC NOTICE.

I BEG to inform the inhabitants of Wellington that I have this day disposed of my Retail Ironmongery Business to Mr. Robert Gardner. While thanking my friends and customers for the very liberal support I have received during the last twenty-two years, solicit a continuance of the same to my successor.

E. W. MILLS.

30th September, 1876.

The Inhabitants of Wellington and neighborhood will, I am sure, admit the worth of the above introduction. It only remains for me to say that I bring to Wellington an extensive experience of both the ENGLISH and COLONIAL HARDWARE TRADES that will, I trust, enable me to continue successfully the business so long and ably carried on by Mr. E. W. MILLS. It will be my endeavor to merit the support solicited by keeping a complete assortment of first-class goods, which I shall offer at the very lowest remunerative prices.

ROBT. GARDNER.

The style of my firm will be Robt. Gardner & Co.
30th Sept. 1876.

ROBERT GARDNER & CO.,

FURNISHING AND GENERAL
IRONMONGERS,

LAMBTON QUAY, WELLINGTON.