

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

IT is hereby notified that the firm of CAMERON & PLIMMER, trading as the Wellington Tinware Manufacturing Company, has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. All accounts owing to or by the firm shall be settled by Mr. J. A. Plimmer, who continues the business under the old title.

MAURICE P. CAMERON.
JOHN A. PLIMMER.

Witness—Martin Chapman,
Solicitor, Wellington.

Referring to above I solicit for my late partner a continuance of the good things bestowed upon the old firm.

Yours truly,
M. P. CAMERON.

NOTICE.

WE have this day disp sed of our Ironmongery Business on Lambton-quay to Mr. M. P. CAMERON, and while thanking the public of Wellington for the very liberal support accorded us during the last 13 years, we solicit on behalf of our successor a continuation of that support, feeling sure he on his part will strive to deserve it.

ROBT. GARDNER & CO.

Wellington, 10th January, 1889.

Having purchased the Business above mentioned, it is my intention to carry on the same under the style of M. P. Cameron & Co. as Furnishing and Builders' Ironmongers. Goods of best quality only will be kept, and reasonable prices asked. English goods are now landing ex Jessie Readman, and American goods are expected shortly per William Phillips, Simeon, and Euterpe. The premises will be closed for a few weeks for alterations and stock-taking. When re-opened I trust the public will bestow upon me at least a portion of their patronage.

Yours, &c.,
M. P. CAMERON.
