

The Rev. Matthew Gardner, D.D., who is visiting the Dominion on sick leave, and is at present staying with his brother, Mr Robert Gardner, Terrace End, Palmerston North, is one of the best known ministers of the Established Church of Scotland. His great church, known as the Hyndlands Parish Church, Glasgow, is attended mainly by merchant princes of the Northern city, professors, and professional men.