Allen E. Thompson

Funeral services for Allen E. Thompson, 65, of 330 21st Place S. E., Fall City, retired Water Department forester, will be at 3 p. m. Tuesday at the Snoqualmie Community Methodist Church. Cremation was held. He died Friday.

Mr. Thompson was born in Spokane and came to Seattle in 1916. He moved to Cedar Lake in 1927, to Cedar Falls in 1929 and to Fall City in 1956.

Throughout his career Mr. Thompson was connected closely with the management and development of the city's watersheds.

In 1962, he helped develop the Cedar River Cooperative Agreement, which brought together city, private and federal interest in the watershed and set a program for long-range management of water-conserving forest areas. He wrote numerous technical papers on forest management.

Mr. Thompson was the 1955 honored alumnus of the U. W. Foresters' Alumni Association.

Survivors include his wife, Theodora B.; a son, Theo A., Tyrone, Pa.; two daughters, Mrs. Robert O. Curtis, Portland, and Mrs. Donald L. Forsander, Elk City, Okla.; a sister, Mrs. Ruth R. Thompson, Seattle; two brothers, Vernon A., Port Angeles, and Glenn O., Aberdeen, and ten grandchildren.

The family suggests remembrances to the Allen E. Thompson Memorial Fund, College of Forestry Alumni Association, University of Washington, or to the American Cancer Society.

Mr. Gaul died Tuesday in Santa Rosa, Calif., his home since last summer. He owned a men's apparel store in Everett until his retirement in 1962.

Born and reared in Everett, Mr. Gaul attended the University of Washington and sang in its Glee Club. He was a past president of the Everett Retail Trades Bureau and a past chairman of the Snohomish Red Cross Chapter.

Mr. Gaul was a past executive ruler and board member of the Everett Elks. A Mason, he was a member of Scottish Rite bodies, Nile Temple of Shrine, the Everett Golf and Country Club, the Everett Yacht Club and the Cascade Club.

Survivors include his wife, Louise, Santa Rosa; a daughter, Mrs. Ronnie Lou Crebow, Alameda, Calif., and a sister, Mrs. Leona Doolittle, Carmel, Calif.

MRS. JOE BONOMI
