

THE LATE MR. E. A. LEVINGS. — The funeral took place at Ide Hill Parish Church on Wednesday of Mr. Ernest Alfred Levings, of Sunny Villa, Goathurst Common, whose death occurred on Thursday last at the age of 56. Mr. Levings, who leaves a widow and three daughters to mourn their loss, was a native of Gravesend, but had been a resident of Ide Hill for 32 years, of which 20 were spent as Goathurst Common's blacksmith. For many years he had served on the committee of the Ide Hill Gardening Society, while he was treasurer of the Sunny Villa Slate Club. He was one of Goathurst Common's keenest advocates for the bringing of the electric light to the Common. The Rev. G. H. Tubbs (Vicar) officiated at the funeral, and with the choir in attendance and Mr. S. L. Smith at the organ the hymns "Abide with me" and "God moves in a mysterious way" were sung. The chief mourners were Mrs. Levings (widow), Mr. A. Levings (cousin), Mr. and Mrs. Wiles (son-in-law and daughter), Mr. and Mrs. F. Seale (son-in-law and daughter), Miss Levings (daughter), Mr. and Mrs. F.
