

SIX MONTHS' IMPRISONMENT FOR WIFE BEATING.—On Friday, Daniel Miles, labourer, of Whitchurch, was apprehended by P.C. Baker under a warrant, charged with assaulting and using violent and threatening language towards his wife, Mary Miles. He was brought before H. E. Mynors, Esq., on Saturday, and this being his second appearance for the like offence, he was ordered to be bound over, himself in the sum of £50 and two sureties in £20 each, to keep the peace for six months; and, in default, to be committed to Shepton Mallet gaol for six months. The sureties were not forthcoming, and he was accordingly committed.
