
District News.

KEYNSHAM.

At the police court yesterday, before Col. Shrine and Mr A. Stuckey-Lean, Thomas Holland was summoned for leaving Henry Kingston's service without giving a week's notice at Whitchurch. The complainant said that owing to the defendant leaving him, plaintiff's shop was lying idle, and he sustained a good loss. He claimed £3 4s. The defendant stated that owing to being ill he had been told by Mr Kingston to go home. For three weeks he had been ill. He would ask for an adjournment, as he had had no time to bring witnesses to prove the amount of money that Mr Kingston had paid out. The case was then adjourned for a month. — Daniel Miles was summoned for using obscene language on February 12th at Whitchurch. P.C. Ford proved the case, adding that the defendant had a bad character, and was a terror to the place. A fine of 10s and costs was imposed.